

PRIVACY POLICIES AND PRACTICES FOR OUR CLIENTS

The privacy of our investors is very important to us. This Privacy Policy sets out the information practices for Sprott Inc. and its affiliates (collectively, the “Sprott Group”), including what types of personal and business information is collected, how the information is used, and with whom the information is shared. We are committed to protecting your privacy and maintaining the confidentiality of your information. The following describes how Sprott Asset Management USA, Inc. (SAM USA) handles your personal information, and what steps we take to protect your privacy. We do not disclose your personal information to any unaffiliated third party for marketing purposes. If you close your account with us or otherwise become a former customer, we will continue to treat your nonpublic, personal financial information as described in this policy.

Who we are: SAM USA is an investment adviser. We offer investment advice to retail and institutional clients concerning natural resource investing.

What personal information do we collect?

The term “personal information” refers to any information about you (or other identifiable people) including information that may specifically identify you or them. We collect personal information that you provide to us (or that your financial advisor or dealer provides to us on your behalf), which may include the following:

- Your full name, address, occupation and date of birth, as required by law;
- Identification, such as a valid driver's license or passport;
- Your social or national insurance number for ID or income tax reporting purposes, as required by law;
- Your financial information including annual income, assets and liabilities, and banking information;
- Your employment history and credit history;
- Information about third parties such as your spouse if you are applying for any brokerage, financial product or other service offered by the Sprott Group (collectively, the “Services”), where this information is required by law or necessary for us to perform a contract with you.
- For legal entities such as businesses, partnerships, trusts, estates or investment clubs, we may collect the information referred to above from each authorized person, partner, trustee, executor and club member, as appropriate. Each member of the Sprott Group may be a controller of personal information that we collect and each will comply with this policy.

How do we use your information?

We collect and use your personal or business information in order to give you the best possible service and for the purposes set out in your agreement(s) with us, such as:

- To establish your identity and verify the accuracy of your information;
- To confirm your corporate status;
- For Anti-money laundering compliance needs;
- To determine the suitability of our Services for you;
- To determine your eligibility for our Services;
- To set up, administer and offer Services that meet your needs, including fulfilling any reporting or audit requirements;
- To provide you with ongoing Service, including executing your transactions;
- To provide you and your financial advisor or dealer with confirmations, tax receipts, proxy mailings, financial statements and other reports;
- To meet our legal and regulatory requirements;
- To manage and assess our risks; and
- To protect us from error and to prevent or detect fraud or criminal activity.

We collect, use and disclose your social or national insurance number, social security number or other government-issued personal or business identification number for ID verification purposes and for income tax reporting purposes, as required by law. In addition, we may ask you for your social security number to confirm your identity. This allows us to keep your personal information separate from that of other customers, particularly those with similar names, and helps maintain the integrity and accuracy of your personal information. You may refuse to consent to its use or disclosure for purposes other than as required by law.

We will store your personal information for no longer than it is needed and our retention of the information will be in accordance with our internal policies and the Data Protection Legislation.

Confidentiality and security: SAM USA uses procedural, physical and electronic system safeguards to store and secure information about you in compliance with federal standards. Our systems protect your information from unauthorized access, alteration and destruction. Access is permitted only to those individuals within our organization who need the information to perform their job responsibilities.

Where we get information: The information we collect about you comes primarily from your SAM USA New Account Documentation. This includes such information as your name, address and social security number that you may have provided on these applications, agreements or other forms. In addition, we maintain records of each of your transactions and holdings at your custodian firms.

To whom we disclose the information: We provide information about current or former clients from the sources described above to parties outside SAM USA only as described below. We may share your personal or business information within the Sprott Group for the purposes set out above. We do not provide directly all the services related to your relationship with us. We may use third party service providers or agents such as:

- Your financial advisor or dealer;
 - Other financial service providers such as investment dealers, custodians, banks and others used to finance or facilitate transactions or operations on your behalf;
 - Transfer agents, portfolio managers, brokerage firms and similar service providers; and
 - Other service providers such as accounting, legal or tax preparation services and credit reference or identity check providers.
- To your custodial firm, RBC Capital Markets, LLC, Interactive Brokers, Merrill Lynch, Fidelity, JP Morgan Chase or US Bank, in order to process activities for your investment account(s) with SAM USA, your custodial firm handles all custody functions, processes & settles trades, transmits 1099 reporting to the IRS, sends monthly statements of your account(s), etc.
 - To other companies as necessary to process your business. For example your custodial firm or fund administrator transmits your account and transactional information to the company that prepares your account statements. Third parties in the category, like those in the category above, must limit their use of the information to the purpose for which it was provided.
 - Where required by law or regulation. Examples include responses to a subpoena, court order or regulatory demand.
 - As authorized by you. You may direct us, for example, to send your account statements and trade confirmations to a third party or request bank wire transmissions.
 - As otherwise authorized, permitted by law or you. For example, the law permits us to respond to requests for information about you from a consumer-reporting agency.

We may also be required by law to disclose information to government regulatory authorities. For example, we may be required to report your income to taxation authorities. We may also be required to disclose your personal and business information to self-regulatory organizations (“SROs”). SROs collect, maintain and use such information for regulatory purposes, including trading surveillance, audits, investigations, maintenance of regulatory databases and enforcement proceedings. SROs may, in turn, disclose such information when reporting to securities regulators or when sharing information with other SROs and law enforcement agencies.

Sprott Group may be involved in the sale, transfer or reorganization of some or all of its business at some time in the future. As part of that sale, transfer or reorganization, we may disclose your personal and business information to the acquiring organization.

SAM USA employees use information about you to respond to your needs and to provide you with information about specific products in which you may have an interest. We instruct our employees to use strict standards of care in handling the personal and confidential information of customers. We remind them regularly of their obligations regarding the confidentiality of customer information.

How do you withdraw your consent?

Subject to legal, regulatory and contractual requirements, you may refuse to consent to our collection, use or disclosure of your personal or business information, or you may withdraw your consent to our further collection, use or disclosure of your information at any time in the future by giving us reasonable notice. Depending on the circumstances, however, withdrawal of your consent may impact on our ability to provide you or continue to provide you with some Services or information that may be of value to you. We will act on your instructions as quickly as possible but there may be certain uses of your information that we may not be able to stop immediately.

You can tell us at any time to stop using information about you to promote our Services or the products and services of third parties we select, or to stop sharing your information with other members of the Sprott Group. If you wish to withdraw consent as outlined in this Privacy Policy, you may do so at any time by contacting us by mail at Royal Bank Plaza, South Tower, 200 Bay Street, Suite 2600, Toronto, Ontario M5J 2J1 Canada Attention: Privacy Officer or by e-mail at privacy@sprott.com.

UPDATE

How do you update your information?

As we make decisions based on the information we have, we encourage you to help us keep our information accurate and complete. Contact us at any time in writing at Sprott Inc., Royal Bank Plaza, South Tower, 200 Bay Street, Suite 2600, Toronto, Ontario M5J 2J1 Canada Attention: Privacy Officer if you wish to update the information we have about you.

How can you access your information?

You may request access to the personal information we hold about you at any time to review its content and accuracy and to have it amended as appropriate. To request access to such information please contact us in writing at Sprott Inc., Royal Bank Plaza, South Tower, 200 Bay Street, Suite 2600, Toronto, Ontario M5J 2J1 Canada Attention: Privacy Officer.

We will respond to your written access request promptly. We may be unable to provide you with access to all or some of the information we hold about you (the Data Protection Legislation may in some cases require us to withhold some information, for example if it is legally privileged).

California Residents

Residents of the State of California, see our California Consumer Privacy Act Disclosures here.
Last Modified and Effective Date: UPDATE, July 2023

California Privacy Notice

This notice and policy supplements information contained in privacy disclosures from Sprott Inc. and its corporate business affiliates and subsidiaries (“Sprott”) and applies solely to residents of the State of California (“consumers” or “you”). Any terms defined in the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018, as amended from time to time (“CCPA”) have the same meaning when used in this notice and policy. This notice and policy does not reflect our collection, use, or disclosure of California residents’ personal information, or data subject rights, where an exception under the CCPA applies. You can download a pdf version of the notice and policy here.

As a California resident, you have the rights listed below.

To submit a request to exercise the right to know, please submit an email request to privacy@sprott.com or call our toll-free number at 855-943-8099. To submit a request to delete personal information, please submit an email request to privacy@sprott.com or call our toll-free number at 855-943-8099.

Sprott may ask that you provide certain information to verify your identity. The information that we ask you to provide to verify your identity will depend on your prior interactions with us and the sensitivity of the personal information (PI) at issue. Sprott will respond to your request in accordance with the CCPA. If we deny your request, we will explain why.

- RIGHT TO ACCESS You have the right to access PI which we may collect or retain about you. If requested, we shall provide you with a copy of your PI which we collect as permitted by law. You also have the right to receive your PI in a structured and commonly used format so that it can be transferred to another entity (“data portability”).
- RIGHT TO KNOW You have the right to request that we disclose the following about your PI, as defined by law:
 - The specific PI we may collect;
 - The categories of PI we may collect;
 - The categories of sources from which we may collect your PI;
 - The business purpose(s) for collecting or sharing your PI;
 - The categories of PI we may disclose for business purposes; and
 - The categories of third parties to whom we may sell or share your PI.

- RIGHT TO OPT-OUT / DO NOT SELL/DO NOT SHARE MY PERSONAL INFORMATION or state: state we do not sell/share PI within the meaning of the CCPA/CPRA.
- RIGHT TO REQUEST THAT WE DO NOT COLLECT, SHARE, OR DISCLOSE MY SENSITIVE PERSONAL INFORMATION You have the right to limit how your SPI is disclosed or shared with third parties, as defined in the CCPA/CPRA.
- RIGHT TO DELETION In certain circumstances, you have the right to request the erasure of your PI. Upon verifying the validity of a deletion request, we will delete your PI from our records, and instruct any service providers or third parties to delete your information, when applicable.
- RIGHT TO CORRECT/RIGHT TO RECTIFICATION In certain circumstances, you have the right to request correction of any inaccurate PI. Upon verifying the validity of a verifiable consumer correction request, we will use commercially reasonable efforts to correct your PI as directed, taking into account the nature of the PI and the purposes of maintaining your PI.
- ACCESS AND OPT OUT OF AUTOMATED DECISION MAKING INCLUDING PROFILING

Please note that the above rights are not absolute, and we may be entitled to refuse requests, wholly or partly, where exceptions under applicable law apply.

EXERCISING YOUR RIGHTS If you are a California resident, you can exercise any of your rights as described in this Policy/Notice and under applicable privacy laws by using the contact information provided in this Notice. We will not discriminate against you for exercising such rights. Except as described in this Policy/Notice or provided for under applicable privacy laws, there is no charge to exercise your legal rights.

When a business sells your personal information, you have a right to opt out of such sale. Sprott does not sell, and in the preceding 12 months did not sell, California residents' personal information. Sprott does not have actual knowledge that it sells the personal information of minors under 16 years of age.
