Julia Hathaway

Managing Partner, Institutional Client Relations

Julia Hathaway joined Sprott in January 2020. Before joining Sprott, Julia spent seven years at Tocqueville Asset Management, a boutique asset management firm in New York City, where she worked in a variety of capacities including research and business development. Julia graduated from Colorado College in 2010 with a Bachelor of Arts (B.A.) in Philosophy. Following graduation, Julia worked in the outdoor industry before beginning her career in finance in 2013.

Julia holds her Series 7 and 63 licenses, administered by Financial Industry Regulatory Authority (FINRA).
